HAMLIN, JONES COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JULY 10, 1942

NUMBER 36

DAN MOODY

UNDEFEATED — Dan Moody has set his sights on winning the U. S. Senate seat and his supporters point out that the red-headed, hard-campaigning attorney has yet to lose a race.

As governor, Moody gave outstanding aid to the State's public schools. The textbook law was amended and the expense of free textbooks was materially reduced. Rural schools qualifying for rural aid were for the first time given full six-month terms, and money was appropriated for vocational training of under-privileged children.

In 1935 at the personal request of President Roosevelt, Moody went to New Orleans and successfully prosecuted a member of the Louisiana political ring for income tax evasion.

Born in Taylor, Moody was educated in the public schools of that county and the University of Texas. He enlisted in the Army during the first World War and was commissioned a second lieutenant of infantry.

"If elected to the U. S. Senate," Moody declares, "I will support all measures which will contribute to our winning the war. I will oppose any influence which will imperil our chances of winning the war or delay victory."

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jenkins, who have been living in Sweetwater, returned this week to Hamlin to make their home. Mr. Jenkins is employed with the Santa Fe Railway Co.

Highway Construction Going Fine, May Stop

It has been several weeks since the Herald has had anything to say on the subject of highways.

You see, here in Hamlin we are about a half dozen years behind in State highway building, and while other communities are silent on road work we are just getting into "high". It may not be as bad as the statement would imply, for perhaps within another year the highway from Hamlin to Rotan will be entirely completed.

The situation NOW is not so bad, considering that this much needed road is going on while war is raging. Already 12 miles of the road from Hamlin towards Rotan is nearing the final topping stage. They have built a fine road bed, and on parts of the road the "primer" oil coat has been laid. This will be finished and the asphalt topping will be put down unless that material can not be secured.

In the Hamlin-City part, where seven blocks are being paved from property-to-property, including concrete curbing and gutter and concrete street-crossing depressions. This work is a slow process but will be done perhaps by July 20th and then the final topping will have it complete up in modern style. This is making Hamlin a beautiful street, one that can be very attractive if property owners along on either side will develop well the parking area with grass, and suitable trees.

The only thing to keep the entire road from being finished this summer and fall, is the fact that the contractors can not get equipment replacements on this road, which doesn't have priorities rating. They will shift to another project, with rating, and later return and finish the eight miles on the Rotan end. All of us regret that situation, but the war is making a lot of things we do not like.

HAMLIN SHIP BUILDERS

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Smith and little daughter, Benita, came up from Houston to spend a short visit in Hamlin and in Weatherford. Irvin is a welder in the Houston Ship Building Yard. He has been there three months and nine ships have been launched. Production will increase. 15,000 men are there on the job.

Other ship builders from Hamlin, besides Smith are: Vernon Harrell, Otis Hopper, Cyril Graham, Stanley Farmer, Loris Hill and perhaps others.

Mr. Smith says reports are that 95 per cent of the men in the ship yard never saw a ship or yard till they began working in the Houston yard. This is another field for winning the war.

Mr. Bowen Pope:

As I received my Hamlin Herald last Saturday the first thing I saw was a red hand and as I never knew who was in the red, you or I. I am sending you one dollar to keep my Herald coming to the same address. As I get most of the news around Hamlin through the Herald.

As ever,

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Scifers at Whiteface, Texas, are going to hear from Hamlin every week now, since they are to get the Herald as a gift from Mrs. Fed Britton.

Hamlin Folks Buy $221,979 War Bonds

When we add the amount of money loaned to Uncle Sam for War Stamps, $5,514.00, you get a total of $221,979.00 for War Bonds and Stamps purchased by Hamlin community people, up to July 1, 1942.

That is a creditable sum for a community this size. Take this and all the other activities Hamlin people have shown, including the large number of young men who have volunteered and have been selected for the various war services, it shows that we are all in the war in dead earnest. Hamlin people will continue to show more and more sacrifices as the emergency develops. There is not a thing we have that is worth a hoop, if we let the Germans and Japs mess up our land.

"TEXAS" Lincoln

GOV. COKE STEVENSON

"The Atlantic Charter of President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill gave new emphasis to the desire in the hearts of men everywhere for spiritual, intellectual, political and economic freedom. We are now engaged in a grueling contest to determine whether these objectives can be attained." (Quoting a speech of Gov. Stevenson).

"Some day in the enlightenment of human conscience another objective will be added to freedom's list, the right of public officials and candidates to be free from personal abuse, villification and slander.

"It is apparent that the weapon of slander has been used by men who had no merit of their own in an attempt to destroy those who do have character and ability. The tongue of slander has frequently been a convenient implement with which to spread the cankerous slime of falsehood and stain the reputation of an honest man. It is unfortunate that such sentiments exist in the human breast.

"During the time of Washington, scurrilous publications were circulated against him. He was accused of being a liquor hound and of gambling and of being a Tory at heart. If there had been oil in the country at that time, they would have charged him with being owned and controlled by the oil companies, since he was a large landowner and oil might have been found under his land.

"His traducers and slanderers have been forgotten, while the name of Washington grows in purity, affection and esteem. He went right on with his job of winning the Revolutionary War. If a great man like Washington could not escape abuse and slander, then Coke Stevenson can hardly expect to. I believe, however, Texas people bitterly resent any man trying to win an office by such tactics.

"None of us now can measure up to the stature of Washington, and I make no pretense of being in his class. I can emulate his example, however, and ignore any of my political enemies who are circulating false and unfounded charges against me. I can further emulate his example by continuing to devote my time and efforts to the most important job before us, and that is the winning of the war in which we are now engaged."

What About Your Tires?

Every day you read in newspapers, magazines, and trade journals about the care of your tires. All seem to agree on four simple rules to prolong your tire life, viz:

1. Drive under 40 miles per hour—30 miles per hour preferred.
2. Every 5,000 miles change the tire on the left front wheel to the right rear, and the right front to the left rear.
3. Check tire inflation every week religiously. Keep them properly inflated.
4. Check front wheel alignment every 5,000 miles or more often. Check wheel balance every 5,000 miles.

Now

In some states it is required by Tire Rationing Boards to have this service performed before new tires will be issued.

95 PER CENT of all Recapped Tires—Vulcanized Tires, and Tires used with Puncture Proof Tubes, DEFINITELY require Wheel Balancing, as well as Front Wheel Alignment.

This service can be had right here in Hamlin, Texas. We have the best equipment that money can buy for both Wheel Alignment and Wheel Balancing.

Why not drive in today for a check-up. It will definitely make your tires last longer and save on both gasoline and repair bills to have your car BEAR ALIGNED.

YOUR CAR How to Get the MOST out of it

BATTERIES AND BRAKES

Batteries, like tires, are best kept in service. If your car isn't used for any length of time, be sure the battery is recharged every 30 days. If your car is hard to start, chances are the battery is weak. All its energy is being used up in turning the engine over, and nothing is left for the spark. Even in service its specific gravity should be tested occasionally. Keep the terminals clean and coated with heavy grease and check weekly to be sure the plates are covered with water.

Brakes are another thing it doesn't pay to neglect. However, wear on brakes is gradual, and sometimes we don't realize their condition until in some emergency our foot hits the floor board and nothing happens. A good rule is to have them adjusted if the pedal can be pushed to less than two inches from the floor board or if the car swerves under braking pressure. Have them relined before the lining rivets start grooving the drums. New linings will last longer if broken in carefully. If the brake pedal suddenly goes down or if you have to "pump" it, the brake fluid is low. It is important to refill the type recommended by the manufacturer.

Squeaks and rattles are bound to develop in time in any car. Squeaks mean friction and friction means wear. Rattles also mean wear. Have all bolts, nuts and screws tightened periodically.

THE WAR—

Monday, July 6th—

Thanks to the Japs, last week's 4th of July turned not so disastrous as in the days when the rubber supply was all we needed. The casualty list was far below what that famous holiday has caused in other years.

Another week has passed and the battle over the world still rages with many uncertainties.

Sevastopol, the greatest of all sea forts and fortifications, belonging to Russia, has finally fallen under the ponderous 50,000 tons of German shot and shell.

The battle of Sevastopol was described by a German military spokesman as "unparalleled in all the history of war in severity, violence and bitterness."

The Germans are pushing back slowly great Russian armies into their interior and their oil fields may soon be endangered. Hitler realizes this summer is his last summer for aggression and he must also realize that every inch he gains is at the expense of untold blood and misery to his armies.

This Monday finds Field Marshal Rommel "stalled" before the ever increasing power of the British-American forces 60 miles west of Alexandria. It looks better for our Nations this week. In fact, to think of letting the Suez Canal and all the Middle East fall into German hands is like seeing England or America invaded. It must not happen. American tanks are proving they can take it and blast them too.

American airmen are preening their wings for a kill. Already their daring has been felt in occupied Holland, and over the sands of North Africa. This week finds our air forces operating as United States Army units in China with telling results on the Japs.

This Monday indicates that American submarines are getting under the Japs in the far out extension of the Aleutian Islands, with three Jap destroyers down and one set on fire. It would appear our forces are working silently but effectively all over the Pacific and for that matter all over the world.

As July starts, we are hearing more and more from our boys in every land available to the American flag. Australia, India, Alaska, Iceland, Egypt, Ireland, England and a thousand other islands of the seas. Yes, the Spirit of Freedom is being carried to helpless peoples all over the world. Some may not crave help, some may not understand and don't care what happens; and some peoples have only one ray of hope... the American Flag... the American soldiers, sailors and ships, to lift them out of the world's greatest struggle.

Last week the Herald "PREDICTED" that Rommel's army would be cut to pieces on the hot sands of Egypt. It still holds good. We predict the northern stretches of Africa will be regained gradually and the absolute control of all the southern part of the Mediterranean Sea will be in English-American hands. Then the gradual elimination of the Italian fleet and air fields.

One is permitted to assume what can happen, and make his "happy" predictions. The only limitations on what "might happen"—is just how long can the Germans and Japs hold out when they begin their "defense". Americans and Englishmen will not allow their men to be slaughtered to merely win fame for some general. Slow, cautious advancement, with time no element (when on our side) is less costly than the death of hundreds of thousands of good men.

Yes sir, this Monday, July 6th, looks better in many ways to what it did two or three weeks ago.

Death To Spies—

This week is an important week in American history. By now all of us have heard of the eight German spies. And spies are not tried by civil courts.

To get it off our minds, we say, NOW, "Death to spies".

Seven hard boiled, grim American generals will be sitting in judgment according to Military Rule, when you read this, to determine the fate of eight German spies. Eight men, who thought they could sneak out of a submarine, come onto American shores and begin an invasion of American rights. What price glory for such poor devils? This must be the real stuff. This can not be propaganda for it is too serious. A lot of questions must arise in every mind.

How did our mysterious FBI get onto these men? Were there just eight? Maybe there are 16 or 32 or maybe a hundred or more yet prowling around.

Wonder if these spies had encouragement from our thousands of "internal spies?" Wonder if the FBI does not have the "number" of a lot of unsuspecting men and women, in this country, who out of personal hatred would like to see some of our leaders "set down"? If the eight men who sought to burn blast, beguile, and ruin American people and their future happiness are found guilty, they should be given what they sought to inflict upon us. And it will be dangerous for any American to suggest any pussy-foot sentiment to save their lives.

Had those men been trying to blast our cities, and ships in open battle and were taken prisoners they would have been treated as prisoners. The Army Trial Commission knows well the ideals of American people is back of them and they will do justice.

—T & T—

Who Shall It Be?—

Right now the question of "Who Shall It Be?" ought to be uppermost in the minds of Texas voters. But there are other things to take thought and interest... it is the outcome of our greatest of all struggles... the War... for on a dozen important fronts our boys, and our neighbor boys are facing our common enemy.

But somebody must hold office. "Who Shall It Be?"... the candidate thinks "It shall be me." A year like this is the best time in the world for the wrong man to get into office. If ever in our history we need the true, sincere, rugged, fearless American in positions of trust, it is now.

To listen to the rattle trash of some candidates it would appear the only fellow in the world who is a sure shot to do everything right and unselfishly it is "HE" and all and everything in the office has done is wrong and dishonest. That rattle trash method of getting people's votes is the most dangerous type of "electioneering". So Mr. Voter, start at once to find out who is entitled to reflect your own ideals of government in office. It is best to try to be sure and then do not be surprised that you helped hitch up the wrong horse to the governmental carriage. If a voter can't know... be a good guesser and don't expect an official to be perfect and a hundred per cent at the bat.

Dismissed For Hazing—

"A. & M. Ousts 20 Students for Hazing" so runs a headline in The Dallas Morning News of Monday.

Now let's see. If there is anything existing in some of our state schools that old-fashioned Texans despise it is "Hazing". Not many really understand what all it means, and if they did such a howl of protest would go up till every "blamed school" letting it exist in any form would be closed up by the wrath of fathers and mothers.

Now listen to this: Administrative officers of the school are using every possible means to stop hazing "because the United States is at war and such tactics do not fit into our preparation for victory". The

Soldier's Letter

Island of Oahu

July 1, 1942

Editor, Hamlin Herald, Hamlin, Texas.

Dear Mr. Pope:

Greetings from a "Yank" in Oahu, third largest of the islands that make up the Territory of Hawaii which in the past few years has become famous as the "Paradise Islands" because of wide publicity, varying from news reel shorts through complete movies and Travel Brochures.

I arrived here the latter part of May and my admiration for the entire populace of the Island has risen to a high peak. My attention was drawn almost immediately to the wonderful work of camouflaging, which in all truth can be called a work of art. It has been perfected to the highest degree of efficiency, which makes it almost impossible to distinguish it, so cleverly have the colors been blended in with the surrounding terrain. Also I have had the privilege of working in this capacity, as we used a special form of camouflage under the supervision of one of our officers who designed the particular style for our position, and it turned out much better than we anticipated.

We are nearing our 225th consecutive night of the continuous "black out". Night driving is discouraged except when absolutely necessary, as in defense work which continues 24 hours daily with never a let up. We aren't observing holidays, which throws us on a seven day week, including night duty 365 days a year. The speed and efficiency with which various projects are being completed, through the use of equipment and machinery of the latest design, is to be marveled at. The co-operation between the civilian workers and the United States Engineering Dept. is one closely united effort and causes one to wonder who recognizes more the great urgency of the problem that confronts us—the civilian population or the Engineers. They are to be highly praised for their work, indeed. Wherever you chance to look, you see their work going on. Even the women of the Island are doing men's work down to the hardest form—that of pick and shovel. There isn't any form of idleness; that ceased to exist Dec. 7th. Wherever you chance to look on the streets, you see signs leading to Air Raid Shelters, Air Raid and Gas Alarms.

Numerous changes have taken place. The famous beach at Waikiki though a part is open for swimming during the day, for the most part is enclosed with barbed wire entanglements, fox holes, and numerous other forms pertaining to defense. Also one of the resort hotels has been taken over by the Government to house Military Personnel for the duration and also to accommodate enlisted men and officers on passes and shore leaves.

The natives here on the Island are well educated and converse intelligently on almost any subject. They are courteous, friendly and unusually thoughtful and are 100 per cent Americans as their attitude plainly shows. I can sincerely say too little has been accredited in their respect. I am also quite confident few stories have ever reached the mainland, not only of their courage and patriotism, but of their ceaseless efforts in co-operating to achieve the goal to turn this into one of our most efficiently fortified Islands, which it surely is today. Few have been cited for courage or heroism, but all are to be commended for their whole heartedness in all capacities.

All service men are taken for a tour of the Island at Government expense. The Island compares in size to the city of Chicago, and the tour is not only educational but quite interesting. There are many interesting sites here which unfortunately I'm not permitted to relate.

We are allowed passes once approximately every 3 weeks during the day only. We have adequate transportation and where transpordean of the school is F. C. Bolton, and here's power to him. The Herald is one paper that knows enough about hazing to say frankly that not any part of such conduct is "good Americanism". It has no features that will "fit into our preparedness" on any line, war or not war times. Now we are fully aware of the fact that some of our A. & M. friends will hoot at what any newspaper says against the hazing practice. Not many A. & M. boys go there, sold on hazing, but after they have been subjected to it for two or three years, they come to the idea that "now we've got to do it." Stop hazing or stop the school.

tation isn't available, the Government furnishes it. We have at our disposal movies, all forms of recreation, and when their time permits, the civilians welcome the men into their homes for that looked forward to "Home Cooked Meal".

I neglected mentioning that on the boat coming over we carried a group of civilian workers. The second day out I had just been relieved from my gun position on the star board stern and was approaching the ship's canteen when I saw a face I was sure I recognized. Having an unfailing memory of faces and names, I quite lustily shouted his name and sure enough it was none other than Le Ray La Baume, a neighbor whom I hadn't seen in some six years. We managed to get together and I heard all the news he was able to relate. I was overjoyed at seeing him—another confirmation of "It's a small world". He also is on the Island employed as an electrician at one of the flying fields here.

I have purposely refrained from mentioning names of cities and other information which we are requested not to include in letters. As much as I would like to include it, I'm not permitted to because of censorship, but I have described as much in detail as I consider permissible. Tho we are here under adverse conditions, we have small barracks to stay in which are quite comfortable and a surplus of food.

I'm quite confident that if Slant-Eyes should be unfortunate enough again to see fleeting glimpses of the Island, it would be in the reverse of Dec. 7th. We are looking forward to the day when it will no longer be a "Black Out in Paradise".

With regards to all,

Very truly yours,
Mark M. Bailey

Makes Texans' Eyes Bug Out on Politics

"Deep in the Heart of Texas"

These are terribly grim days. The fate of free peoples everywhere hangs perilously in the balance as on land, sea and in the air the armored hordes of the Axis dictators battle ruthlessly for world domination.

Fighting heroically in the forefront against these barbarous forces are thousands of valiant sons of Texas. The Great Lone Star State is one of the most patriotic in the union.

But you would never get the vaguest idea of any of this from the fantastic antics now being displayed in the heart of Texas by Senator (Pass-the-Biscuits, Pappy) O'Daniel in his burlesque campaign for reelection.

Political Medicine Show

The crooning ex-flour salesman, teamed up with a crooning mineral-water salesman who is running for Governor, is daily putting on a political medicine show that would have brought blushes in the balmy days of peace. There is nothing to equal it anywhere in the country.

Here is a sample from an exhibition put on by O'Daniel and Hal Collins, his running mate, at Houston the day before Tobruk fell:

Both candidates had their own bands of fiddlers to whoop up the crowd before and during their acts. O'Daniel's fiddlers were dressed in cowboy attire and were led by Texas Rose and Mike O'Daniel, the Senator's son. Collins' fiddlers were attired as farmers, with big straw

About Soldiers--Sailors

The Herald desires to keep in touch with Hamlin community boys of the Army, the Navy, and Air Corps and every branch of war service.

There are several reasons "WHY" First for their sake. Many of these boys take the Herald and will have a little chance to know what their chums are doing if they occasionally see a small report from them.

But whatever we print about the boys will depend upon somebody telling us something. We get tired of asking questions, especially if we get short, unreportable answers. Under no conditions do we want to print something not true. And it gives us extra pleasure to report good news. And bad news strikes us under the heart just as it does a relative, for we are glad to have a lot of tears to drop for a boy who is giving his very life for his country. So from week to week as long as this terrible war lasts, help us to find something to say for the boys.

This week we read a letter from Harvey Elkins, a metal mechanic in India. Harvey is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Elkins. Harvey reports his trip over as being delightful except that he took sick with Yellow Jaundice and spent 35 days in the hospital. Never saw "hide nor hair" of a submarine. Stopped at Cape Town and Elizabethtown, South Africa. There the people treated them royally, not even letting them spend a thing for food or rides. India, he says, is hot and even has "sandstorms".

Staff Sgt. Pilot W. B. Teague and wife of Kelley Field, came up Friday night for a visit with their mother, Mrs. W. B. Teague. Pilot Teague will leave about Saturday for Indianapolis to go into Transport Service. Teague has been in the service two years and 7 months, doing training and service in various American fields and 10 months in Puerto Rico. O yes, Sgt. Teague's wife is a fine looking "Yankee".

Charles Prater got two letters and a cablegram to Hamlin from Australia for a 4th of July treat. The letters were dated April 20 and 27. Charles is very buoyant and happy over a promotion to Corporal. His chief wishes were to get more letters from Hamlin, some "store" candy, chewing gum and the Hamlin Herald. Charles thinks they will soon be pushing the Japs back.

Sgt. M. J. Meeks writes from Daniel Field, Augusta, Ga. He says they are all set to go somewhere at a moment's notice. His letter is firm and brave, ready to wade in on the enemy. Meeks has been in the service two years and he has not been home a single time.

Staff Sgt. Pilot William Pickron, who is piloting planes pulling target in the Gunnery Range in the big Gila Bend of Arizona, was in Hamlin Monday morning. Pilot Pickron's parents live at McCaulley. He says the target floats about 500 feet from his plane for the ground crews to shoot at.

Sailor boy Jack Morris, Ship Fitter 3rd Class, from the Seattle Navy Yard, came home last Friday on a ten days leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Morris. Jack has a lot of interesting information about ships, submarines, Jap bombing on Dec. 7th, and ship construction, repairing, deep sea diving, welding, and on and on he can talk. He was a guest speaker on the Lions program Tuesday, and held the men spell-bound for nearly an hour. It would seem Jack knows about every inch of ships. He has been in the service a little over two years. He said they were enjoying the loveliest Sunday morning on the Battleship Nevada when all of a sudden they realized a war was on. That day of seven months ago is history now, but one likes to hear our boys tell of it. Yes, the Japs know they hit the Nevada. It was raised from the shallow bottom and is now in a big port being repaired and reconditioned and ere long will give the Japs all it's got. Morris says it looked like everything played right for the Japs that Dec. 7th. He says, "Just wait; we will get 'em yet". He has been taking diving lessons lately, and can go down and cut or weld iron under water almost as easily as on the surface. Well, to make a long story short, Morris is making a typical efficient sailor, who knows his country can do the trick on Jap or German.

HEARTS and FLOWERS

TOM: Gosh, Ann, I'm glad I could get back in time for our wedding anniversary. Being on the road as much as I am, it seems like I'm never home. Here's something for you.

ANN: You darling! Flowers!

TOM: It could have been a new hat if that blamed car of mine hadn't had to have a new set of piston rings.

ANN: I know wives shouldn't interfere in their husband's business, Tom, but Mrs. Reardon was telling me how much money Jack saved on the maintenance of his car. He drives even more than you do.

TOM: What all did she tell you, Ann?

ANN: Well, Jack Reardon uses Conoco Nth motor oil. That's the oil that OIL-PLATES the engine and saves a lot of wear and tear. And it contains a new synthetic that helps keep the oil from fouling up, too. Mrs. Reardon says Jack has to make his car last two or three years longer now and Conoco Nth motor oil will help him do it!

TOM: That settles it, Ann! I'm going to change right now to Conoco Nth!

ANN: Good boy! And maybe I can still get that new hat?

You'll agree that it's orchids to Conoco Nth motor oil, once you prove to yourself how it is so economical, clean-running and wear-saving. See Your Conoco Mileage Merchant today! Continental Oil Company

O-O-O

The military situation which involves you and me as well as all of the Allied Nations, is becoming at times what we could call alarming. So far, it's the same old story—"Too late and too little". One day we hear that the Allies are superior in the air and in tanks, and then the next day the fort has fallen to the axis.

The American people are far from being pessimistic; in fact we all know that it would be better for us to die on our feet than to live on our knees and all agree that America will fight on to death rather than to make peace with Hitler on his terms. And it's time that we take the offensive even if we have to fight with air guns and nigger shooters.

We are told that production is in full swing turning out guns, tanks, planes and everything that it takes to win. We have the man power, we are buying bonds and stamps. Sugar, tires and even gas are being rationed. Old rubber from shoe heels to caterpillar tires are being turned over to the government by a patriotic people. But still it's the same old story, "Too late and too little."

We notice that when military reverses happen within the ranks of the axis, that there is always a leadership is quickly installed. And so it seems that even an enemy might teach us a few things in the art of war.

Shall we wait for a surprise by the enemy, or shall we surprise the enemy? It does not take a military genius to know that no war was ever won by an army who never took the offensive. No, we in America are not down in the dumps. We know that our American boys make the best soldiers on earth and we have faith and confidence in their ability to fight and to win, but let us not stay on the little end of the horn. If we do not have the ships or planes for transportation, if we do not have the guns then the people will be patient, but please, Washington or who ever is responsible, don't tell us the same old story, like Tobruk being superior in the air and in tanks and within a few hours the story was "Too late and too little."
